If a grievance is properly appealed to the Superintendent, who shall set a time to hear the grievance within ten (10) days after the appeal is received. After the meeting, the Superintendent shall issue a decision in writing within 10 days to the parties involved.

Step 3: In the event the grievance is not resolved in Step 2, the decision rendered may be appealed to the School Board, provided such appeal is made within ten days after receipt of the decision in Step 2. If a grievance is properly appealed to the School Board by submission to the School Board Chair, they shall set a time to hear the grievance within thirty (30) days after the appeal is received. After the meeting, the School Board shall issue their decision in writing within 10 days to the parties involved.

Step 3A. Upon completion of the previous procedure and prior to requesting arbitration, the Union or the Employer may request mediation of the grievance by the Bureau of Mediation Services. Such request must be made within ten (10) days following the decision in Step 2. The time limit for requesting arbitration is tolled during mediation and if mediation does not resolve the grievance within 30 days, arbitration may commence as hereafter provided in Step 4.

Step 4. If the grievance remains unresolved, the Union may, within 10 days after the response of the School Board, by written notice to the Employer, request arbitration of the grievance. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by an arbitrator to be selected by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union. If the parties fail to mutually agree upon an arbitrator within seven days, either party may request the Bureau of Mediation Services to submit a panel of 5 arbitrators. Both the Employer and the Union shall have the right to strike two names from the panel. The party requesting arbitration shall strike the first name; and the other party shall then strike one name. The process will be repeated, and the remaining person shall be the arbitrator.

Section 7. Arbitrator's Authority

The arbitrator shall have jurisdiction over disputes or disagreements relating to grievances properly before the arbitrator pursuant to the terms of this procedure. The jurisdiction of the arbitrator shall not extend to proposed changes in terms and conditions of employment as defined herein and contained in this written agreement; nor shall an arbitrator have jurisdiction over any grievance which has not been submitted to arbitration in compliance with the terms of the grievance and arbitration procedure as outlined herein.

The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted to him in writing by the employee and by the Employer at the arbitration hearing and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted to him.

The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to or inconsistent with or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules or regulations having the force and effect of law.

The arbitrator shall submit a decision in writing within 30 days following the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union. It shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement and to the facts of the grievance presented.

Section 8. Fees and Expenses

The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record be made, providing it pays for the record.

Section 9. Waiver

If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union.
