The amount of Union dues to be deducted shall be certified to the Employer by the Union. Such monies shall be remitted as directed by the Union.

2. The Employer agrees not to discriminate between employees on the basis of Union membership or non-membership.
3. The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from any and all action, suits, claims, damages, judgments, or any other form of liability, liquidated or unliquidated, which any person may have or claim to have now or in the future arising out of or by reason by any action taken or not taken by the Employer pursuant to this Article, including the payment of attorney's fees incurred in such defense whether or not a legal action is commenced.

SECTION B

This Employer agrees to recognize no more than three stewards certified by the Union as provided by this Agreement. The Employer agrees to allow stewards a reasonable amount of time for the purpose of conducting duties of the exclusive representative. The steward shall request and get approval from the immediate supervisor for time off for such purposes.

1. The Employer agrees to allow the Union use of designated bulletin board space for the purpose of posting notices of Union meetings, elections, appointment of office, recreation or social affairs, or related items, which shall not be personal, political in nature, or detrimental to the Employer.
2. The Union agrees to limit the posting of any materials to bulletin board space designated by the Employer. The Union may also use e-mail to notify its members of Union meetings and events.

SECTION D

SECTION C

During a work day of 8 hours or longer, employees will be granted at least a thirty (30) minute unpaid lunch.

If the Agreement is reopened as such, the provisions in this Article will be in force and effect unless and until the Employer and Union execute a written agreement to modify any of the provisions.

PTO is accrued on transit observed holidays and days where paid time is taken. No PTO hours are accrued during an unpaid leave of absence, except employees on military leave.

Accumulated PTO shall not exceed two hundred forty (240) hours as of the last day of the year. SECTION D CATASTROPHIC LEAVE BANK

Employees may use Catastrophic Leave only after an absence of five (5) consecutive work days due to a catastrophic event.

Employees may voluntarily donate any amount of accrued PTO to the Catastrophic Leave Bank at any time, but no more than ¼ (25%) of their annual allowable accrual.

The employee may request that the severance pay be paid out over a two-year period for tax purposes following retirement or disability.

SECTION G

In the event employees with at least ten (10) years of continuous service die while so employed, any severance pay will be paid to his/her heirs or estate as indicated above.

ARTICLE 7 SNOW DAYS

Employees who do not work scheduled hours as a result of a snow day may use any accumulated leave time (PTO or compensatory time) or leave without pay for hours not worked that day. If an employee has accumulated time off, it must be used before a leave without pay.

ARTICLE 8
BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Employees shall receive bereavement leave as provided in the Employer's personnel policies.

compensatory time. If an employee has accrued time off, it must be used first before leave without pay (LWOP).

ARTICLE 9 JURY DUTY

Any employee shall be granted a leave of absence with pay for service on a jury. The employee shall pay to the Employer any jury fee received. Monies received as expenses shall be kept by the employee.

ARTICLE 10 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

SECTION A

The Employer shall grant paid and unpaid leaves of absence as provided in the Employer's personnel policies.

ARTICLE 11 HEALTH AND LIFE INSURANCE

SECTION A

The Employer shall provide health and life insurance programs subject to the limitations, benefits, and conditions established by a contract between the Employer and the insurance carrier.

SECTION B

All eligible employees may participate in the Employer's health and life insurance programs.

SECTION C

In calendar years 2021, 2022, and 2023, the Employer will contribute toward the premium for health insurance on the same basis, subject to the same conditions and restrictions and the same dollar amount as the basic program for nonunion employees in calendar year 2021 for calendar year 2021 premiums, calendar year 2022 for calendar year 2022 premiums, and calendar year 2023 for calendar year 2023 premiums.

The Employer will contribute toward the premiums for health insurance for employees working at least 30 hours a week but less than 40 hours, on the same basis, subject to the same conditions and restrictions and the same dollar amount as the basic program for nonunion part-time employees in calendar year 2021 for calendar year

ARTICLE 12
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

SECTION A

A grievance shall be defined as a dispute or disagreement between the Employer and an employee regarding the interpretation of application of a specific term of this Agreement.

STEP 1. An employee desiring to initiate a grievance shall, within ten (10) working days of the date of the alleged violation, present with or without the Union, such grievance in writing to the Employee's immediate supervisor and meet and discuss the grievance with the supervisor. The supervisor shall submit an answer in writing within ten (10) working days of the presentation of the grievance and meeting and discussion.

STEP 2. If the grievance is not resolved in Step 1 and the Union desires to appeal it to Step 2, the Union shall place the grievance in writing setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated and the remedy requested; present the grievance to the Director and meet and discuss the grievance with the Director within ten (10) working days after the supervisor's answer in Step 1. The Director shall submit an answer to the Union in writing within ten (10) working days of the presentation of the grievance and meeting and discussion.

STEP 3. If the grievance is not resolved in Step 2 and the Union desires to appeal it to Step 3, the Union shall place the grievance in writing setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated and the remedy requested and present the grievance to Board through submitting it to the Director within ten (10) working days after the Director's answer in Step 2. The Union shall meet and discuss the grievance with the Board within fifteen (15) working days. The Board shall submit an answer in writing to the Union within fifteen (15) working days of the meeting and discussion.

STEP 4. If the grievance remains unresolved at Step 3, either party may submit the grievance to mediation with the State of Minnesota Bureau of Mediation within fifteen (15) working days after the Board's answer in Step 3. Submitting the grievance to mediation preserves and tolls the timelines for Step 5 of the grievance procedure.

STEP 5. If the grievance remains unresolved at Step 3 or Step 4, the Union shall present written notice of its intent to request arbitration to the Director within fifteen (15) working days after the Board's answer in Step 3 or Mediation in Step 4. Within five (5) working days after presenting the notice, the Union must provide a written request for a list of seven arbitrators to the State of Minnesota Bureau of Mediation Services with a copy to the Director.

SECTION B

1. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, nullify, ignore, add to, or subtract from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the Employer and the Union, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue so not submitted.
2. The arbitrator shall be without the power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules, or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator, however, may not make any decision on whether the Employer violated any law, regulation not apply and law, rule or regulation in the decision except to determine whether a decision would be contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modify or vary in any way the application of laws, rules or regulations having the force and effect of law.
3. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) calendar days after the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the party, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement and to the facts of the grievance presented.
4. Expenses of the arbitrator's services and the proceedings shall be borne by the Employer and the Union. However, each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record and makes copies available without charge to the other party and to the arbitrator.

SECTION C

If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above it shall be considered waived. If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed upon extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof, within the specified time limits, the employee shall elect to treat the grievance as denied and may appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union representatives involved at each step.

SECTION D

If the event giving rise to a grievance is appealed to any procedure other than the grievance procedure in this article, at any time, the grievance is not subject to this grievance procedure, nor arbitration under such procedure.

ARTICLE 13 DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- Verbal reprimand

- Suspension (notice to be given in writing)
- Demotion
- Discharge

Any disciplinary action or measure imposed upon an employee may be processed as a grievance through the regular grievance procedure.

The employee and his/her steward shall be notified in writing that the employee has been suspended and is subject to discharge.

The Union shall have the right to initiate a challenge to the discharge as a grievance at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, and the matter shall be handled in accordance with this procedure through arbitration step, if deemed necessary by either party.

SECTION C

Employees shall have the right to provide written responses to allegations and disciplinary actions to be included in their personnel file.

Employees shall receive a copy of such reprimands and/or notices within a reasonable time. Upon written authorization by the employee, a copy will be forwarded to the business agent.

SECTION E

An employee shall be allowed Union representation if the employee is being investigated regarding a matter that may lead to disciplinary action.

ARTICLE 14 SENIORITY

SECTION A

When an employee finishes the training period, the employee shall be entered on the seniority list and shall rank for seniority from the last date of hire by classification

The seniority list, on the date of this Agreement, shall show the name and job title of all employees. The Employer shall maintain an up-to-date seniority list and will provide the Union with an up-to-date copy annually, said copy to include the names of probationary employees.

Probationary, temporary, seasonal, and casual employees within classification will be laid off prior to layoff regular full-time or part-time employees. The layoff shall be based on seniority, ability to perform available work and work performance with the least senior in a classification laid off first.

In the event a position is eliminated, the effected employee shall have the right to displace or bump an employee with less seniority within the classification, provided the employee can adequately perform the requirements of the job. In the case of a potential, or an actual, government shut-down that impacts funding or services, the Employer and Union shall meet to discuss contingency plans.

SECTION D RECALL

A regular employee laid off from a bargaining unit position retains right of recall for a period of one year from the effective date of layoff. Recall from layoff shall be by classification. Employees shall be recalled based on seniority, ability to perform available work and work performance with Employer. No new employees shall be hired in a classification where there are employees on layoff status until all such employees have been offered recall. Failure by an employee to return to work as directed by the Employer in the recall notice shall terminate the employee's recall rights. It shall be the responsibility of the employee on layoff status to provide the employee's most current address and phone number.

ARTICLE 15 VACANCIES AND PROMOTIONS

During the trial period, the Employer may return the employee to his/her former position. The Employer may extend this trial period for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days upon notice to the employee and Union. The Employer may extend this training period not to exceed ninety (90) days upon notice to the employee and Union. During the training period a new employee may be discharged without cause and no grievances may be filed for termination of employment.
