ARTICLE 6
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section A. Definition of a Grievance.

A grievance is defined as a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation or application of the specific terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Section B. Union Representatives.

The Employer will recognize Union Representatives designated by the Union as Stewards having the duties and responsibilities established by this Article. The Union shall notify the Employer in writing of the names of such stewards and of their successors when so designated.

Section C. Processing of a Grievance.

It is recognized and accepted by the Union and the Employer that the processing of grievances as hereinafter provided is limited by the job duties and responsibilities. The aggrieved employee and the Steward shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time without loss of pay when a grievance is investigated and presented to the Employer during normal working hours, provided the employee and the Steward have notified and received the approval of the designated supervisor who has determined that such absence is reasonable and would not be detrimental to the work programs of the Employer.

Section D. Procedure.

Grievances, as defined by Section A, shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure:

Step I. An employee claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, within ten (10) calendar days after such violation has occurred, present such grievance to the employee's supervisor as designated by the Employer. The Employer designated representative will discuss and give the answer to such Step I grievance within five (5) calendar days after receipt. A grievance not resolved in Step I and appealed to Step II shall be placed in writing, setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the Agreement allegedly violated, and the remedy requested, and shall be appealed to Step II within ten (10) calendar days after the Employer designated representative's formal answer in Step I. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step II by the Union within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

Step II. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the Employer designated Step II representative. The Employer designated representative shall give the Union the Employer's answer in writing within five (5) calendar days after receipt of such Step II grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step II may be appealed to Step III within ten (10) calendar days following the Employer designated representative's final answer in Step II. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step III by the Union within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

1. Either party, the Employer or the Union, of said Agreement may at their option, call in the Bureau of Mediation Services for grievance procedure purposes before said grievance is subject to arbitration.

Step III. A grievance unresolved in Step II and appealed to Step III shall be submitted to arbitration subject to the provisions of the Public Employment Labor Relations Act of 1971. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances", as established by the Bureau of Mediation Services.

Section E. Arbitrator's Authority.

1. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to, subtract from, the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the Employer and the Union, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.

2. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) days following the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union, and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this Agreement and to the facts of the grievance presented.

3. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings, the costs shall be shared equally.

Section F. Waiver of Grievance.

If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union.

Section G. Choice of Remedy

If, as a result of the written Employer response in Step II, the grievance remains unresolved, and if the grievance involves the suspension, demotion or discharge of an employee who has completed the required probationary period, the grievance may be appealed either to Step III of Article VI or a procedure such as: Civil Service, Veteran's Preference or Fair Employment. If appealed to any procedure other than Step III of Article VI, the grievance is not subject to the arbitration procedure as provided in Step III of Article VI.
