6.23 Classification Seniority, which shall be the total length of service within a work classification.

6.3 Breaks in Seniority: An employee's seniority shall be broken by voluntary resignation, layoff, discharge for just cause, or retirement.

6.4 Except in those instances where senior employees are not qualified to perform remaining work, seniority shall determine the order of:

6.41 Layoff, which shall be by classification within a department, in inverse order of classification seniority. However, an employee about to be laid off shall have the right to bump (displace) an employee in a lower classification, provided that the Employer determines the employee who is exercising bumping rights to be adequately qualified to perform the duties of the classification into which he/she is bumping and he/she has greater department seniority than the employee who is to be bumped.

An indefinite layoff shall be defined as a layoff made for an indeterminate period at the time of notice or any layoff of forty-five (45) or more days. The Employer may layoff an employee for a definite period of forty-four (44) days or less by giving written notice to the affected employees. Recall notification shall be by registered or certified mail to the employee's last known address for an indefinite layoff and shall be contained in the layoff notice for layoffs for a definite period.

6.44 Emergency, probationary and seasonal or temporary employees in the same department and classifications shall precede permanent employees in layoff. No new employees shall be hired in a work classification within a department where there are employees on layoff status until all laid off employees have been recalled in accordance with the above.

6.5 The Employer is committed to hiring the most qualified candidate for County service. The Employer shall select the applicant with the greater department seniority for the job opening unless the qualifications of the applicants are not equal. Positions where incumbents are reclassified shall not be considered vacant or newly created for the purpose of bidding.

6.6 For a period of five (5) working days prior to filling such vacant or newly created position, the Employer shall post, in a conspicuous place, in the department, notice of all vacant or newly created positions to be filled. Such notices shall state the type of work, the place of work, rate of pay, normal hours to be worked, and the job classification.

7.3 Procedure: Grievances, as defined by Section 7.1 shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure:

Step 1. The Union claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this contract shall, within ten (10) working days after such alleged violation has occurred, present such grievance to the county engineer. The grievance shall be placed in writing and set forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the contract allegedly violated, and the remedy requested. The engineer shall respond to the grievance within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance. The Union may appeal the engineer's answer to Step 2 within ten (10) working days of the answer in Step 1.

County of Sibley/AFSCME #65 (Highway Unit)
January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024

Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 2 by the Union within ten (10) working days - shall be considered waived.

Step 2. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the County Board. The County Board, or its designee, shall give the Union the Employer's answer in writing within ten (10) working days after receipt of such Step 2 grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step 2 may be appealed to Step 3 within ten (10) working days following the County Board's or its designee's answer in Step 2. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 3 by the Union within ten (10) working days shall be considered waived.

Step 2A. Prior to submission of a dispute to arbitration at Step 3, a party may request that the dispute be mediated by the Bureau of Mediation Services. If the other party agrees to mediation, the time lines set forth in Step 2 for appeal to Step 3 shall be tolled until the completion of mediation.

Step 3. A grievance unresolved in Step 2 and appealed to Step 3 shall be submitted to arbitration and subject to the provisions of the Public Employment Labor Relations Act of 1971. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by the Public Employment Relations Board.

- 7.4 Arbitrator's Authority: The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the terms and conditions of this contract. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the Employer and the Union, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted. The arbitrator may not ignore the language of the Agreement. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this contract and to the facts of the grievance presented.
- 7.5 Arbitrator's Fees: The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's service and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings, the cost shall be shared equally.
- 7.6 Waiver: If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit of each step may be extended by mutual agreement of the Employer and Union.

7.7 Choice of Remedy: If, as a result of the written Employers response in Step 2, the grievance remains unresolved, and if the grievance involves the suspension, demotion or discharge of an employee who has completed the required probationary period, the grievance may be appealed either to Step 3, or a procedure such as: Civil Service, Veterans Preference or Human Rights. If appealed to any procedure other than Step 3, the grievance is not subject to the arbitration procedure as provided in Step 3. The aggrieved employee shall indicate in writing which procedure is to be utilized, Step 3, or another appeal procedure, and shall sign a statement to the effect that the choice of any other hearing precludes the aggrieved employee from making a subsequent appeal through Step 3.

An employee pursuing a remedy pursuant to a statute under the jurisdiction of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission is not precluded from also pursuing an appeal under the grievance procedure of this Agreement. If a court of competent jurisdiction rules contrary to the ruling in EEOC vs. Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities, 957 F.2d 424 (7th Cir.), cert. denied, 506 U.S. 906, 113 S. Ct. 299 (1992), or if Board of Governors is judicially or legislatively overruled, this paragraph of Section 7.7 shall be immediately null and void and shall be deleted from this Agreement.
