7.4 Procedure.

Grievances, as defined in Section 7.1, shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure:

STEP 1. An employee claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days after such alleged violation has occurred, present such written grievance as set forth above to the employee's supervisor as designated by the County Attorney. The Supervisor will give an answer to such Step 1 grievance within ten (10) calendar days after receipt. A grievance not resolved in Step 1 and appealed to Step 2 shall be in writing as set forth above and shall be appealed to Step 2 within ten (10) calendar days after the designated Supervisor's final answer in Step 1. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 2 by the Union within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

STEP 2. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the County Attorney or designee. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 3 by the Union within ten (10) calendar days of when the Step 2 answer is due shall be considered waived.

STEP 3. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the Union and discussed with the County Administrator. The County Administrator shall give the Union the Employer's Step 3 answer in writing within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of such Step 3 grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step 3 may be appealed to Step 4 within ten (10) calendar days following the County Administrator's final Step 3 answer. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 4 by the Union within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

STEP 4. A grievance unresolved in Step 3 and appealed to Step 4 by the Union shall be submitted to arbitration subject to the provisions of the Public Employment Labor Relations Act of 1971, as amended. The selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the "Rules Governing the Arbitration of Grievances" as established by the Bureau of Mediation Services. Failure to select an arbitrator within ninety (90) days of the employer's answer in Step 3, shall be considered a "waiver" of the grievance unless the delay in selection is caused by the employer, or the delay is mutually agreed upon by the parties in writing.

7.5 Arbitrator Authority.

- a. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the Employer and the Union and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.

- c. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union, provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings, the cost shall be shared equally.

7.6 Waiver. If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered waived. If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any extension thereof agreed to in writing by the Union and the County Administrator, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the grievance is deemed to have been denied. The time limits in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union in each step.

- 7.7 Choice of Remedy. If as a result of the written Employer response in Step 3, the grievance remains unresolved and if the grievances involve the suspension, demotion or discharge of an employee who has completed the required probationary period, the grievance may be appealed either to Step 4 of Article VII or a procedure such as: Veteran's Preference or Civil Service. If appealed to any procedure other than Step 4 of Article VII, the grievance is not subject to the arbitration procedure as provided in Step 4 of Article VII. The aggrieved employee shall indicate in writing which procedure is to be utilized, Step 4 of Article VII or another appeal procedure, and shall sign a statement to the effect that the choice of any other hearing precludes the aggrieved employee from making a subsequent appeal through Step 4 of Article VII.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, under the collective bargaining agreements between Rice County (the County), its employees' exclusive representative(s) of the Assistant County Attorneys (the Union), the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) provided eighty (80) hours of emergency paid sick leave (EPSL) to employees under specified circumstances related to the 2020 declared public health emergency; and

WHEREAS, the County recognizes that the public health emergency relating to COVID-19 has continued past the expiration of the FFCRA on December 31, 2020; and

WHEREAS, the County recognizes that only a portion of County employees will have used the eighty (80) hours as of December 31, 2021; and

NOW, THEREFORE, for the reasons stated, the County and the Unions agree as follows:

1. The provisions of this Memorandum of Agreement shall commence on January 1, 2022 and shall automatically terminate as of the date of the earliest of any of the following events:
  - a. The United States government or the State of Minnesota enacting legislation requiring the County to provide any additional COVID-19 paid leave to its employees;
  - b. The United States government extending the expiration date of the FFCRA;
  - c. The Governor issuing an executive order requiring COVID-19 paid leave to employees of the County;
  - d. The Governor or the Minnesota Legislature ending the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic; or
  - e. December 31, 2022.
2. Bargaining Unit members of the above-referenced Union who did not use the full eighty (80) hours of emergency paid sick leave (EPSL) as of December 31, 2021, are eligible to use leave up to the remainder of the eighty hours of leave, for which these hours shall not be deducted from their sick leave banks, for the following reasons:
  - a. During such time that the employee is subject to a federal, state, or local quarantine or isolation order related to COVID-19, if the employee provides a copy of such order upon request;
  - b. If the employee has been advised by a healthcare provider to self-quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19 and provides documentation of such advice;
  - c. During such period of time that the employee is experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and is seeking a medical diagnosis, and provides information regarding the symptoms and identification of the health care provider upon taking the leave, followed by the advice received within five business days; or

- d. The employee is caring for a spouse, parent or minor child who is subject to an order described above in 2a-b.
3. In the event that an employee requests leave due to one of the reasons set forth in paragraph 2, the Department Head and Human Resources will determine if the employee can telework. If the employee can telework, leave shall not be granted.
  4. In the event that Human Resources determines that an employee is eligible for leave and that telework is not available or appropriate to the circumstances, leave will be as follows for such period of time that it has been granted:
    - a. Up to a maximum of two weeks' pay (maximum 80 hours, reduced by any amount of EPSL used in 2021; prorated for part-time) up to a maximum of $511 per day, for the reasons set forth in paragraph 2a-c.
    - b. Up to a maximum of two weeks at 2/3 pay (maximum 80 hours, reduced by any amount of EPSL used in 2021; prorated for part-time) up to a maximum of $200 per day, for the reason set forth in paragraph 2d.
  5. An employee may take up to four hours of paid time to travel to a COVID-19 vaccination site, receive a vaccination, and return to work. This would mean a maximum of eight hours of paid time for employees receiving two doses. If an employee is vaccinated outside of their approved workday(s) they will not be compensated.
  6. An employee having side effects that prevents them from working, immediately following a COVID-19 vaccination, may utilize a maximum of up to two workdays of paid time. If an employee has side effects outside of their approved workday(s) they will not be compensated.
