In recognition of the UNION as the exclusive representative the EMPLOYER shall:

- 4.1 Deduct from each payroll period an amount sufficient to provide the payment of dues established by the UNION from the wages of all employees authorizing in writing such deduction; and

- 4.2 Remit such deduction to the appropriate designated officer of the UNION, together with a list of names from whom deductions were made.

- 4.6 Employee representatives may attend bargaining sessions with the employer scheduled during their shift without loss of pay. The UNION agrees to limit the number of employee representatives eligible for bargaining sessions to two (2) employees. An employee on duty during negotiations is obligated to respond to a call.

- 5.1 The EMPLOYER retains the full and unrestricted right to operate and manage all manpower, facilities, and equipment; to establish functions and programs; to set and amend budgets; to determine the utilization of technology; to establish and modify the organizational structure; to select, direct and determine the number of personnel; to establish work schedules; and to perform any inherent managerial function not specifically limited by this AGREEMENT.
- 5.2 Any term and condition of employment not specifically established or modified by this AGREEMENT shall remain solely within the discretion of the EMPLOYER to modify, establish, or eliminate.

- 6.1 DEFINITION OF A GRIEVANCE
A grievance is defined as a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation or application of the specific terms and conditions of this AGREEMENT.
- 6.2 UNION REPRESENTATIVES
The EMPLOYER will recognize representatives designated by the UNION as the grievance representatives of the bargaining unit having the duties and responsibilities established by this Article. The UNION shall notify the EMPLOYER in writing of the names of such UNION representatives and of their successors when so designated.
- 6.3 PROCESSING OF A GRIEVANCE
It is recognized and accepted by the UNION and the EMPLOYER that the processing of grievances as hereinafter provided is limited by the job duties and responsibilities of the EMPLOYEES and shall therefore be accomplished during normal working hours only when consistent with such EMPLOYEE duties and responsibilities. The aggrieved EMPLOYEE and the UNION REPRESENTATIVE shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time without loss in pay when a grievance is investigated and presented to the EMPLOYER during normal working hours provided the EMPLOYEE and the UNION REPRESENTATIVE have notified and received the approval of the designated supervisor who has determined that such absence is reasonable and would not be detrimental to the work programs of the EMPLOYER.

6.4 PROCEDURE

Grievances, as defined by Section 6.1, shall be resolved in conformance with the following procedure. Every effort shall be made to adjust grievances promptly, fairly and in such a manner as to be satisfactory to the EMPLOYEE and his/her supervisor. Any EMPLOYEE who feels he/she has received discipline shall be resolved in the following described manner. Employees shall be free from restraint, interference, discrimination, or reprisal in their presentation of the grievances.

All grievances, step responses and related correspondence shall be filed either in person at City Hall and stamped with a receipt date or mailed to City Hall using the USPS "return receipt requested" process to verify when the document was mailed and received.

Step 1. An EMPLOYEE claiming a violation concerning the interpretation or application of this AGREEMENT shall, within twenty-one (21) calendar days after such alleged violation has occurred, present such grievance to the EMPLOYEE'S supervisor as designated by the EMPLOYER. The EMPLOYER-designated representative will discuss and give an answer to such Step 1 grievance within ten (10) calendar days after receipt. A grievance not resolved in Step 1 and appealed to Step 2 shall be placed in writing setting forth the nature of the grievance, the facts on which it is based, the provision or provisions of the AGREEMENT allegedly violated, and the remedy requested and shall be appealed to Step 2 within ten (10) calendar days after the EMPLOYER-designated representative's final answer in Step 1. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 2 by the UNION within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

Step 2. If appealed, the written grievance shall be presented by the UNION and discussed with the EMPLOYER-designated Step 2 representative. The EMPLOYER-designated representative shall give the UNION the EMPLOYER'S Step 2 answer in writing within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of such Step 2 grievance. A grievance not resolved in Step 2 may be appealed to Step 3 within ten (10) calendar days following the EMPLOYER-designated representative's final Step 2 answer. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 3 by the UNION within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

Step 3. A grievance unresolved in Step 2 and appealed in Step 3 may be submitted, by mutual agreement, to the Minnesota Bureau of Mediation Services. A grievance not resolved in Step 3 may be appealed to Step 4 within ten (10) calendar days following the EMPLOYER'S final answer in Step 3. Any grievance not appealed in writing to Step 4 by the UNION within ten (10) calendar days shall be considered waived.

Step 4. A grievance unresolved in Step 2 and appealed in Step 3 shall be submitted to arbitration. The EMPLOYER and the Union representative shall endeavor to select a mutually acceptable arbitrator to hear and decide the grievance. If the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator, the selection of an arbitrator shall be made in accordance with the Rules established by the Bureau of Mediation Services.

Grievances filed shall state the specific nature of the grievance and the specific remedy proposed. If the grievance specifies "Just Cause," the grievance shall include an explanation of what specific aspect(s) of "Just Cause" is in question.

6.5 ARBITRATOR'S AUTHORITY

- A. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to, or subtract from the terms and conditions of this AGREEMENT. The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the specific issue(s) submitted in writing by the EMPLOYER and the UNION, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.
- B. The arbitrator shall be without power to make decisions contrary to, or inconsistent with, or modifying or varying in any way the application of laws, rules, or regulations having the force and effect of law. The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted in writing within thirty (30) days following the close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever be later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the EMPLOYER and the UNION and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this AGREEMENT and to the facts of the grievance presented.
- C. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the EMPLOYER and the UNION provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings the cost shall be shared equally.

6.6 WAIVER

If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived". If a grievance is not appealed to the next step within the specified time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the EMPLOYER'S last answer. If the EMPLOYER does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the UNION may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual agreement of the EMPLOYER and the UNION.

6.7 CHOICE OF REMEDY

If, as a result of the written EMPLOYER response in Step 3, the grievance remains unresolved, and if the grievance involves the suspension, demotion, or discharge of an employee who has completed the required probationary period, the grievance may be appealed either to Step 4 of ARTICLE VI or a procedure such as: Civil Service, Veterans' Preference, or Fair Employment. If appealed to any procedure other than Step 4 of ARTICLE VI the grievance is not subject to the arbitration procedure as provided in Step 4 of ARTICLE VI. The aggrieved employee shall indicate in writing which procedure is to be utilized -- Step 4 of ARTICLE VI or another appeal procedure -

- and shall sign a statement to the effect that the choice of any other hearing precludes the employee from making a subsequent appeal through Step 4 of ARTICLE VI.

6.8 RESOLUTION OF EMPLOYMENT CONCERNS

If an employee has concerns about any issue of employment, the EMPLOYER and the UNION encourage discussion and resolution through the employee's established chain of command. The EMPLOYER recognized that such concerns may be raised through the UNION when/if the employee does not feel comfortable raising the issue with the EMPLOYER.

ARTICLE 7 - SAVINGS CLAUSE

This AGREEMENT is subject to law. In the event any provision of this AGREEMENT shall be held to be contrary to law by a court of competent jurisdiction from whose final judgment or decree no appeal has been taken within the time provided, such provision shall be voided. All other provisions of the AGREEMENT shall continue in full force and effect. The voided provision may be renegotiated at the request of either party.

ARTICLE 8 - WORK SCHEDULES

- 8.1 The sole authority in work schedules is the EMPLOYER.
- 8.2 The EMPLOYER will give as much advance notice as is practicable, to employees affected by the establishment of scheduled shifts different from the employees' normal scheduled shift.
- 8.3 In the event that work is required because of unusual circumstances such as (but not limited to) fire, flood, snow, sleet, or breakdown of municipal equipment or facilities, no advance notice need be given.
- 8.4 Nothing contained in this or any other article shall be interpreted to be a guarantee of a minimum or maximum number of hours.
- 8.5 Employees shall be given a fifteen (15) minute paid rest period for each four (4) hours worked. The rest periods shall occur as close as practicable to two (2) hours after the start of the day and two (2) hours after the meal break and shall be taken on the job site. Employees working an 8-hour shift shall be given an unpaid meal break of thirty (30) minutes taken approximately four (4) hours after the start of said shift.

ARTICLE 9 - OVERTIME PAY

- 9.1 Hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours within a seven (7) day period will be compensated for at one and one-half (1 1/2) times the employee's regular base pay.
- 9.2 For the purpose of computing overtime compensation, overtime hours worked shall not be pyramided, compounded, or paid twice for the same hours worked.
- 9.3 Employees may earn compensatory time in lieu of cash compensation. Employees may accumulate compensatory time to a maximum of eighty (80) hours.
Compensatory time may only be used with the prior approval of the employee's department head. AFSCME employees may cash out up to twenty (20) ours of accumulated comp time on December 1st of each year.

- 9.4 Overtime will be distributed as equally as practicable.
- 9.5 All overtime must be authorized by the Department Head or designated supervisor.
- 9.6 Employees who are also members of the Princeton Fire and Rescue Department may use compensatory time when responding to fire calls during regular work hours. If an employee does not have sufficient compensatory time available, vacation or unpaid time shall be used. Said absence from work must be approved by the employee's supervisor and Fire Calls must be accurately recorded on employee's timecard. For AFSCME members covered by this contract who are also members of the Princeton Fire and Rescue Department, the City and the Union acknowledge that compensatory time, vacation or unpaid leave used for a fire call can be considered as hours worked for the purpose of computing overtime when such an employee also responds to a fire call during their regular city employment. Both the EMPLOYER and the UNION agree that the above accommodation does not constitute a waiver of the EMPLOYER'S authority under FLSA provisions. If the State of Minnesota issues an opinion or recommendation relating to this provision, a re-opener may occur at the written request of either party.

ARTICLE 10 - CALL BACK

An employee called in for work at a time other than the employee's normal scheduled shift will be compensated for a minimum of two (2) hours' pay at one and one-half (1 1/2) times the employees base rate of pay. An extension of or early report to an assigned shift is not a call back. The EMPLOYER shall not make work to fill the two (2) hour period.

In addition, the weekend on-call Employee called back pursuant to this section shall be reimbursed by the Employer for actual mileage for up to 20 miles (maximum round trip total) to be paid at the IRS rate in effect.

ARTICLE 12 - RIGHT OF SUBCONTRACT

Nothing in this AGREEMENT shall prohibit or restrict the right of the EMPLOYER from subcontracting work performed by employees covered by this AGREEMENT. The

An Employee may request to have oral reprimands removed from their personnel file after two (2) years, if no like discipline has occurred.
- 13.4 Employees may examine their own individual personnel files at reasonable times under the direct supervision of the EMPLOYER.
- 13.5 Employees will not be questioned concerning an investigation of disciplinary action unless the employee has been given an opportunity to have a Union representative present at such questioning. The EMPLOYER will inform each employee of his/her rights under this clause prior to the initiation of a disciplinary investigation.
