The arbitrator's decision shall be submitted, in writing, within thirty (30) days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to an extension. The decision shall be binding on both the Employer and the Union and shall be based solely on the arbitrator's interpretation or application of the express terms of this agreement and to the facts of the grievance presented.
- C. The fees and expenses for the arbitrator's services and proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union provided that each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings, it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record. If both parties desire a verbatim record of the proceedings, the cost shall be shared equally.

The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union at each step. In addition, the Employer and Union may mutually agree to extend the time lines and mediate the grievance following the Step 2 final answer from the Employer prior to appealing the matter to Step 3.
