Constitution

for

Minnesota and Dakotas Council 65

Article I Name

Section 1. This council shall be known as the Minnesota and Dakotas Council 65 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

Section 2. This council shall have offices located in Nashwauk, Minnesota; St. Cloud, Minnesota; and Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Offices shall be located to best serve members and staff of AFSCME Council 65.

Article II Affiliations

This council shall be chartered by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO, and shall affiliate with the Minnesota AFL-CIO.

Article III Objectives

The objectives of this council shall be the objectives of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO.

Article IV Membership and Revenue

Section 1. All AFSCME local unions in the states of Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota, including Minnesota State District Court Employees, Local 1500, excluding those local unions within the jurisdiction of Council 5.

Section 2. The membership dues of local unions affiliated with this council shall be established, and the per capita tax to be paid to the council by affiliated local unions and local union chapters shall be determined in accordance with the following:

Effective July 1, 2010, the dues structure for all Council 65 local unions and chapters, except locals/chapters with at least 250 members and a "progressive" dues system in place prior to adoption of this amendment shall be: 1.615% of base wages to be paid on a per pay period basis, not to exceed the monthly cap amount as described herein.

Base wage is defined as follows: the hourly rate of pay for the employee multiplied by their straight time hours of work for the pay period. Base wage will exclude overtime, shift differential, longevity, premium pay (holiday/weekends/Sunday), on-call or stand-by, attendance bonus pay, severance payments, annual vacation payouts, call back, call off and any other amounts added to a member's base compensation, to the extent that the employer is able to separate these amounts from base wages when computing the dues deduction.

The dues deduction will be subject to minimum and maximum deduction amounts as follows: The minimum deduction will be 1.615% of base wages paid on a per pay period basis. The maximum deduction will be $55.00 on January 1, 2012; with no cap increase on January 1, 2013; then the cap will increase by $1.00 to a maximum of $56.00 per month effective January 1, 2014; then it will increase by $1.00 to a maximum of $57.00 per month effective January 1, 2015. Maximum dues for members of South Dakota locals shall be $47.20 effective January 1, 2017.

The local union share of dues shall be from members only, with the share equal to the local union share of AFSCME's annual minimum dues calculation.

Each local of Council 65 can also specify an added fixed amount, higher percentage and/or higher maximum deduction amount to provide additional funds to the local union. The council, in conjunction with the local and using data provided by the employer, will compute the amount received for these additional deductions. The council will forward the additional local union deductions to the local union with an accounting of how the added deduction amount was computed.

Monthly per capita tax payments to the council shall be made on the same number of members as are reported in the local's per capita tax report to the International Union.

For locals/chapters of 250 members or more who had their own progressive dues system in place prior to the adoption of the amendment, the minimum dues and per capita rates shall be adjusted each January in accordance with the minimum dues provisions of the International Constitution. Council 65 shall send notice of the adjustment to the minimum dues and per capita no later than December 1 of each calendar year to the president and treasurer of any local/chapter that has an approved progressive dues system that is different than the system specified by the Council 65 Constitution.

Section 3. Failure of a local union to remit its council per capita tax for any month by the 15th day of the following month shall result in a declaration of delinquency. Failure of a local union to remit its per capita tax within sixty (60) days after it is declared delinquent shall result in suspension.

Section 4. The council secretary-treasurer shall notify the International Union President and Secretary-Treasurer of all delinquent or suspended locals and of all reinstatements.

Section 5. No special assessments shall be levied on the members of affiliated locals by the council except by a two-thirds vote of the delegates at a delegate assembly meeting of the council. Not more than one special assessment shall be made in any one calendar year. No special assessments shall exceed twenty-five cents ($.25) per member per month. All special assessments shall be used solely for the purpose of promoting the welfare of the council.

Section 6. From the council per capita taxes set forth in Section 2 of this article, the executive board shall designate a portion of the membership dues per month which will be credited to the Council Arbitration Fund. The monies in this fund shall be used to defray any and all costs of grievance and interest arbitration incurred by local unions and the council. Approval of cases to be submitted to arbitration shall be vested in a committee appointed by the council director. The decision of this committee may be appealed to a committee appointed by the council president. If the Council Arbitration Committee referred to above disapproves the submission of a case to arbitration, the local union shall have the right nonetheless to submit the case to arbitration but shall be responsible for the payment of arbitration costs itself. No arbitration case will be accepted for processing under the provisions of this amendment prior to July 1, 1983. If a local union proceeds on its own to arbitration, after being denied arbitration by the Council Arbitration Committee, and said local union wins the arbitration case, then the local union share of the arbitration costs would be reimbursed to the local union out of the arbitration fund.

Article V Meetings

Section 1. Regular meetings of this council shall be held once each year during the months of September or October at a time and place to be fixed by the executive board of the council.

Section 2. Special meetings of this council may be called by the council president and the council executive board. One-third of the locals affiliated with the council may at any time require a special meeting by filing a request with the council president which petition shall name the purpose of the meeting and set its date. Special meetings may also be called by the International President or his/her authorized representatives.

Section 3. There shall be proper and adequate notice of all regular and special meetings of this council.

Section 4. All sovereign powers and authority of the council shall originate in the regular and special meetings of the council and all matters of policy shall be determined at the regular and special meetings of the council.

Section 5. A quorum for the transaction of all council regular and special meetings shall consist of delegates of one-third of the affiliated local unions.

Article VI Representation

Section 1. Locals shall be entitled to delegates on the basis of membership as follows:

0 to 25 - one delegate and one additional delegate for each
25 additional members or major fraction thereof.

Section 2. Regardless of the number of delegates, locals shall be entitled to vote on the basis of one vote for each member.

Section 3. Locals entitled to more than one delegate may send fewer than their quota of delegates, and the delegates present may cast the entire vote of the local on all recorded votes and elections coming before the council. The number of votes shall be divided equally among the delegates, with any remaining votes to be cast by the chairperson of the delegation, as designated by the local. No fractional votes shall be permitted. Two or more locals within the council may unite in sending to the annual or special meetings of the council a delegate who meets the qualifications in one of such locals. Any delegate so elected may cast the votes to which the locals are individually entitled. No delegate may represent more than five locals.

Section 4. The basis of representation in council regular and special meetings shall be determined from the average per capita tax paid to the council by each affiliated local union thereof for the twelve consecutive months ending three full calendar months before the month of the meetings or for such period as per capita tax has been paid in the case of local unions chartered and affiliated with the council less than this period.

Section 5. Duly elected officers and members of the council executive board who are not elected as delegates representing their local union shall nevertheless be entitled to all rights and privileges of a delegate, except the right to vote.

Section 6. No local union shall be entitled to representation in any meeting of the council unless all of its per capita tax and other just obligations to the International Union and the council have been paid in full by or on the day credentials are presented at the meeting.

Section 7. To be accredited, delegates must be on the floor when the vote is taken, and voting by proxy shall not be permitted. All issues except amendments to this constitution shall be decided by a majority vote of the accredited delegates voting, except as otherwise specifically provided in this constitution. A roll call vote will be held only at the request of the delegates from at least five different locals.

Section 8. All delegates to the regular and special meetings of the council shall be elected in accordance with Sections 3A and 3C of Appendix D, Elections Code of the International Constitution. They shall be in good standing in their local and the names of such delegates shall be certified by the proper officers of the locals to the secretary of the council at least ten days prior to the time of the regular or special meeting.

Section 9. Expenses of delegates attending these regular and special meetings shall be the responsibility of their local union.

Section 10. All members elected by their locals as delegates to this council shall serve as delegates for the same term of office as their local's officers.

Section 11. Each delegate shall register before each delegate assembly meeting, signing his/her name and the number of the local he/she represents. Any dispute arising over the qualifications of a delegate shall be referred to the Credentials Committee. The Council 65 Retiree Chapter shall be entitled to one delegate and one vote at the annual Council 65 Convention. Such delegate shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a delegate, except that such delegate shall not be entitled to nominate any candidate for Council 65 office as a Chapter 65 Delegate or to cast the Chapter 65 vote in the election of council officers unless such delegate has been elected to that position by secret ballot vote conducted among the members of the Chapter 65 Retiree Organization.

One of the twelve (12) executive board members shall be a member of MLPNA Local 105, AFSCME, and one of the twelve (12) executive board members shall be a member of either a South Dakota or North Dakota local AFSCME union. These twelve (12) shall constitute the executive board of the council and shall be elected for two-year terms. The president and the recording secretary and the eight (8) additional members will be elected to a two-year term in the even-numbered years. The redistricting shall be subject to the approval of the delegates of the next Council 65 convention.

The president of the AFSCME Council 65 Retiree Chapter shall, by virtue of holding that position, serve as the representative of said retiree chapter on the Council 65 Executive Board and shall be entitled to attend and participate in meetings of the executive board with voice, but no vote, on matters coming before the board.

Section 2. No more than one officer shall be from the same local.

Section 3. All elections within this council shall be conducted in accordance with Appendix D, Elections Code of the International Union Constitution.

Section 4. Nominations shall be made at the regular annual meeting of the council. At least fifty (50) days' advance notice shall be given to the locals prior to the nomination meeting. Nominations shall be permitted from the floor at the nomination meeting.

Section 5. No member shall be eligible to hold office unless all accounts and per capita tax due the council and the International Union are paid in full by the local union of which he/she is a member, and unless he/she has been a member in good standing in his/her local for the year preceding the election.

Delegates must vote for the exact number of executive board member positions to be filled. Should a member of MLPNA Local 105 not be elected to the executive board, only the top two at-large executive board candidates receiving a majority of the votes cast in the election shall be declared elected. The delegates shall then fill the third at-large executive board seat by election of a member from MLPNA Local 105.

Section 7. If more than one candidate is nominated for an office, an election by secret ballot must be held, and the delegates present from each local may cast the total vote to which their local is entitled.

Section 8. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to elect a candidate. When more than two candidates are nominated for a single office, and none of them receives a majority of all votes cast, all candidates except the two who received the most votes shall be dropped and a second ballot cast.

Section 9. The president of Council 65 shall, upon election to office of president, become council delegate to the International Convention of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO. In the event the president cannot fulfill the obligations as delegate to the International Convention and/or special convention, the vice-president shall assume those duties. Council delegates to the Minnesota AFL-CIO Federation of Labor conventions shall be elected by the council executive board.

Section 10. Vacancies in office shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a majority vote of the executive board.
